Comments

The catchy and well-centered title/hook is immediately memorable! However, how, why and when his life-partner decided that she was no longer interested in the idea of goin' fishin' is never communicated. For now it feels like more of a sketch than a fully realized song. As a result, it misses the opportunity for a complete and consistently engaging storyline. This would entail a clear setup, sharply presented scenario/character(s) etc. and perhaps a significant conclusion. Our judges have high expectations for every aspect of the song. This is also true of lyrical progression. Keep this in mind as you continue writing.
